

Dear Dr. Stokes:

I am writing to express my support for efforts to completely replace lethal dose testing with non-animal, in vitro testing methods. I believe this is a very important issue that should be acted upon as quickly as possible. LD50 testing is cruel, unnecessary and inefficient. I hope the NIEHS will lead the way in eliminating this test and moving toward more reliable ways of ensuring safety.

Thank you,
Maggie Brewinski